SEMINAR REPORT

The Department of English , Panampilly Memorial govt.college Chalakudy organized a one day seminar on the topic "Discourses of disability - Cultural and Literary Landscapes Re-defined" on October 4th, 2018.

The seminar was formally inaugurated by Ms. Tiffany Brar, Founder , Jyothirgamaya Foundation, founded for the welfare of the visually challenged and was formally chaired by the Principal in charge Dr. Jojomon, Head the Commerce Department, Panampilly Gov.college. In her highly motivating inaugural address ,Ms. Tiffany Brar explained how the challenges posed by disability were overcome and the desirable changes that was expected of the society to adopt, in their attitude towards the disabled.

There were two major sessions following the inaugural address. Dr. Muralikrishnan T.R, Associate Professor of English, M.E.S Asmabi College, Kodungalloor, led a session on the topic "Disability studies : Multidimensionality , Media Discourse and Demotic Representation" and the next session was led by Dr. Arun Lal, Asst. Professor of English , Govt.College Mokeri on the topic " Self(ie) Filters : Representing the Disabled subject in Social Media Discourse.

The sessions and the paper presentations were followed by an active Question and answer session in which all the participants took part actively. More than 50 participants including Associate Professors, Assistant professors, Research scholars and post graduate students from across various colleges in Kerala attended the seminar which helped them understand the experience of the disabled as well as their own responses to disability in our lives and culture.
