REPORT OF NATIONAL SEMINAR CONDUCTED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE ON 9th and 10th December 2019

The Department of Political Science conducted a Two Day National Seminar on "Contemporary Discourses in Indian Democracy" on 9th and 10th of December 2019. This seminar was sponsored by the Directorate of Collegiate Education, Government of Kerala. Dr. Aravind Krishnan K, the Principal of this institution and Dr. Anil Kumar P, the Head of the Department of Political Science and the faculty members of the department constituted the organising committee.

Mr Prasanth Lal T S, Asst Professor, Department of Political Science was the coordinator of the seminar.

The Seminar formally started at 9 am on 9th December, 2019 with the registration of the delegates and the participants from different colleges. The inaugural session started at 10.00 am. Mr. Prasanth Lal T S, the coordinator of the seminar welcomed the gathering. Dr. Aravind Krishnan, K, the Principal of the college chaired the session and delivered the presidential address. It was followed by the key note address by Dr. Himanshu Roy, Senior Fellow & Professor NMML, Teenmuthi House, New Delhi. The first session was inaugurated by Dr. G Gopakumar, The honourable Vice Chancellor of Central University of Kerala, Kasargod. Dr. Jojomon N A, Vice Principal and Sreekanth C R, Chairman of the College Union felicitated on the occasion.

Dr. Anil Kumar P, Head of the Department of Political Science proposed the vote of thanks as a concluding note of the inaugural session.

The Second session (11.00am-1.00pm) started with presentation of a paper on "Whither Indian Politics?" by Dr. Himanshu Roy, Senior Fellow & professor NMML, Teenmuthi House, New Delhi. In the presentation he mainly focussed on constitutional and political dynamics of India. He also spoke on the constitutional norms and social justice and made some interpretations to aid social justice in India. This session also marked a lecture on "The Question of and Class in Indian democracy" by Dr. G.Gopakumar, Honourable Vice Chancellor, Central University of Kerala, Kasargod in which he highlighted the concept of caste and class as contradictory. He asserted the need for converting an agrarian society to an industrial society to minimise the role of caste and its divisions. The session came to end with vote of thanks by Jisha Abraham, Asst professor, Department of Political Science of PMG College.

The Third session (2.00 pm-4.00) was Chaired by Jisha Abraham, Asst professor, Department of Political Science of PMG College. Pushparajan M M, Asst Professor, Department of Political Science of PMG College chaired the session. This session was blessed with a presentation on 'Contemporary Debates on Democracy' by Mr. Manu M R, Asst professor, Department of Political Science, Government College, Kattappana. He opined that India's political culture has been vitiated by unprecedented waves of populism, jingoism, sectarianism and confrontational politics. He highlighted the wounded spirit of democracy in India. He also pointed out how state power, the ruling party activists, mobs and social and traditional media have been used to curb dissenters and inflame passions designed to assert majoritarianism. Dr. Satheesh Kumar P K, Asst professor University College, Thiruvananthapuram made a lecture on 'Dalit Representation and Identity Politics in India' in the same session. In the speech he made an indepth analysis on caste movement, dalit political affiliation, caste norms and caste exclusion and dalit women voices and the need for questioning the caste hegemony. The session came to an end with the vote of thanks proposed by Sisa S, Asst professor, Department of Political Science, PMGC, Chalakudy.

Day 2 of the Seminar commenced with the Fourth session (10:00-11:30) by Dr. Bijala M V, Asst Professor, School of International Politics and Relations, MG University, Kottayam chaired by Sisa S, Asst professor, Department of Political Science, PMGC, Chalakudy. His presentation was on the topic "Indigenous People and Their rights". In the paper he highlighted the rights and welfare of Tribes in India, continued militarised Human rights abuse, land alienation and the implications social exclusion. The session came to an end with vote of thanks proposed by John J D, Asst Professor, PMGC, Chalakudy.

"Ambedkar on Indian Democracy" was the theme of discussion in the 5th session (11:30am-1:00pm) chaired by Sreejith Y, Asst Professor, Department of Political Science, PMGC, Chalakudy. Sunny M Kapikkad, a renowned social activist the chief speaker of the session explained Ambedkar's thought on democracy and distributive justice. He also elaborated rational approach to the fulfillment of Ambedkar's vision of India. The session was concluded with vote of thanks proposed by Kripa K P, guest faculty in the Department of Political Science, PMGC, Chalakudy.

The 6th session was chaired by Dr. Jojomon, Vice Principal, PMGC, Chalakudy. The session was filled with an exemplory talk on "Media And Democracy in a Post Truth Society" by Dr. Arun kumar K, Asst Professor, Govt Victoria College, Palakkad. Taking recourse to numerous global studies, he threw light on the oft-repeated concepts of post-truth, fake news, false news and suggested ways to combat the menace.
