Three Day National Seminar
on

Questions of Justice and Recognition:
Sixty Years of Kerala Experience

2017 November 28th - 30th

Seminar Hall

Sponsored by Directorate of Collegiate Education, Kerala

Kerala stands unique among Indian states comparable with that of many advanced countries in certain spheres. In sixty years Kerala's achievements in literacy, education, health etc are equal to some developed countries. Caste based discrimination is not as severe as it is found in other parts of our country. But the historical legacy of caste, ethnic and gender discrimination is apparent in several spheres. It is also true that the nature and forms of discrimination and social exclusions have undergone changes overtime.

It is now undergoing a totally different social experience where, Dalit, Tribes, Women and Sexual minorities continue to endure social exclusions. Increasing control over land and resources by the influential classes, denial of basic rights and violence against women and sexual minorities in public and private spheres are the prominent concerns today.

In this backdrop the Post Graduation Department of Political Science, Panampilli Memorial Government College Chalakkudy, Trissur organizes a Three Day National Seminar on 'Questions of Justice and Recognition: Sixty years of Kerala Experience' to deliberate on the changing nature and forms of exclusions and specific problems of marginalized groups in Kerala.
